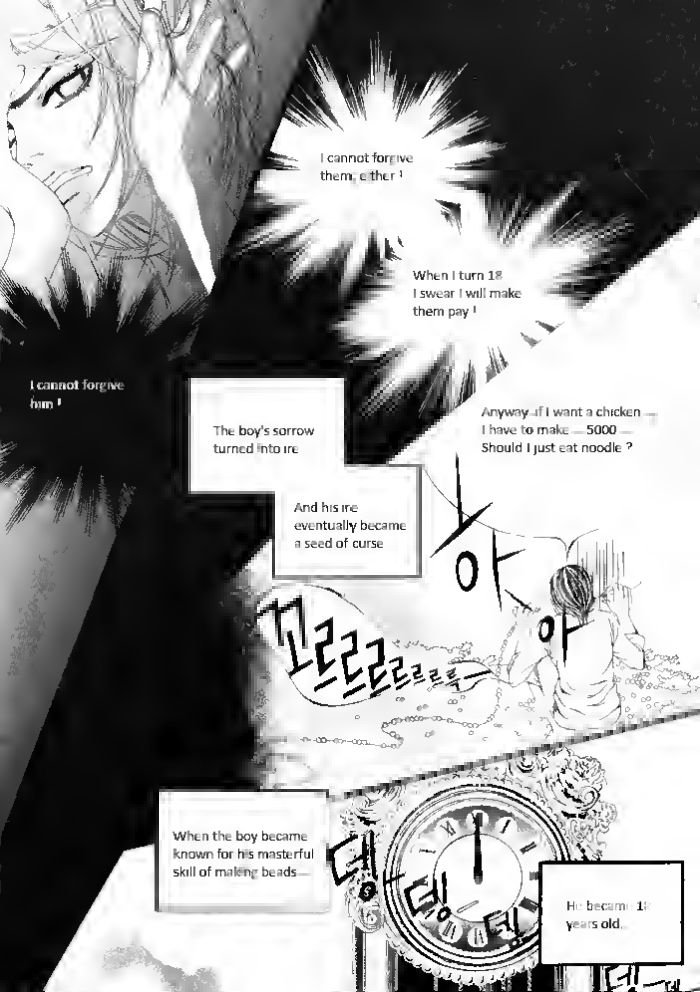
They didn't know that age of 18 was required for his magic to be fully functional
Is he an idiot ?
Perhaps not real son ?
What are we gonna do for living now ?
Sigh

The child was sad, for he no longer had any servants to take care of him
For a week he cried Eventually hunger was about to overtake him
He started to make beads for a living
One bead necklace is 3 cent 10 will be 30 cents I need 10 dollars for a day at least, so —
Huh ?

Mom told me a demon lives here !
Let's move out !
Observing village kids having a good time made the child even loner
I wish I had a father ...
Then I wouldn't have to work and play all day long ...
And I wouldn't have to make these...
Where the hell is my father !
What the hell is he doing leaving his own son like this !
And how could they abandon me like this ?!
I am a kid ! I am supposed to play and eat all day long !



I cannot forgive them, either !
When I turn 18 I swear I will make them pay !
I cannot forgive him !
The boy's sorrow turned into ire
Anyway..if I want a chicken — I have to make — 5000 — Should I just eat noodle ?
And his ire eventually became a seed of curse
